Lift-the-Flap Hear-the-Sound Books

This is a first in children's publishing!

These lift-the-flap book series will delight young children and their parents over and over again. Every page has a flap and every time the flap is lifted, a sound plays! Simple rhyming text supports the surprise sounds that make these a welcomed addition to a child's first library.

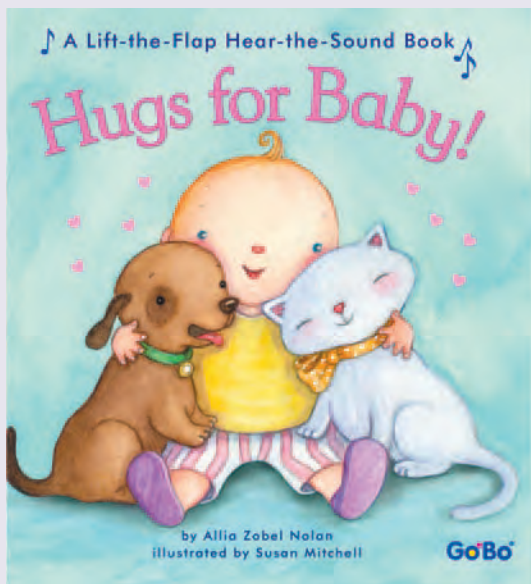

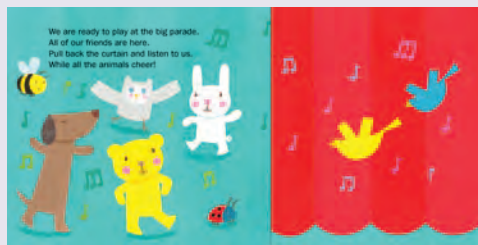

Patent Pending Technology.

8.75" x 8.75", 10 pages with gatefolds, $12.95 US

Animal Parade

The animals are getting ready for the big parade but they can't find their instruments! The hide-and-peek flaps play musical sounds when Kitty finds her flute, Fox finds his fiddle, Mousie finds her tuba and Piggy finds his drum. Then they all play together at the big parade!

Hugs for Baby!

Baby's day is full of hugs and all the sounds that go with them — a puppy barking, a kitty meowing, a bird tweeting, mommy kissing and baby giggling! Parents and children will enjoy hours of fun as they turn each page for a new sound!

Good Night Bunny Rabbit Cloth Carry-a-long Book

Magnix® Readers

Created with and endorsed by educators, each book is both a story and a learning platform to help children develop early skills with counting, colors, telling time and recognizing food groups.

Each book has magnetic pages throughout with companion magnets and removable stickers that will inspire children to want to learn to read. An activity card, which doubles as a bookmark, is also included with each book. On one side is useful information for parents to help them get the most out of the books. The other side provides positive reinforcement for the child by enabling them to track their reading progress. You'll also find a play-scape at the end of every book. This is where children can place and re-place the magnets and stickers in a scene from the story, all while encouraging them to use their imaginations and develop their creativity. Two levels launch the series. Level 1 is designed for ages 3-5 and Level 2 is designed for ages 5-7. Patented Technology.

6" x 9", 16 pages with play-scape, $6.99 US

Monkey Trouble

Children learn to practice beginning counting skills. As the number of monkeys grows on each page (from 1 to 10), children are encouraged to complete the story by finding the corresponding magnetic number and placing it on the page. The silly monkey magnets and food stickers can be mixed and matched on the picnic play-scape at the end for additional fun activities.

Level 1 "Read Together" Ages 3-5

- Read by the parent to the child
- Predictable language patterns and/or rhyme
- Short sentences
- Simple, familiar vocabulary
- Strong picture support

Level 2 "Read Along" Ages 5-7

- Read by the parent and child together
- Mostly short sentences
- Mostly 1-2 syllable words
- Many familiar words
- Many words that are easy to sound out
- Some repeating language patterns
- Strong picture support

Bear Paints

Children learn to practice color words in this fun interactive Reader. A new color (yellow, red, blue, purple, green, and orange) is introduced every two pages, and children can complete the text by finding the corresponding magnetic color word and placing it on the page.

"A child's success in school often depends on his or her early literary experiences. Magnix® Readers are a wonderful way to begin this positive experience."

—Jeanne Rauch, Reading Specialist

Gus Comes To Lunch

Children learn to practice food words in this fun interactive Reader. A new food group (vegetables, fruits, dairy, meats, grains and dessert) is introduced every two pages, and children can complete the text by matching word magnets with the rebus pictures and mix and match stickers for added fun!

Ben's Late!

Children learn simple words in this fun interactive Reader. The text contains rebus pictures and children can find the corresponding word magnets and place them on the page. Children also practice telling time—as the story takes them through Ben's day, they can find the analog clock stickers that correspond with the digital times in the text, and place them on the pages for added fun!

Magnix® Listen & Learn

A breakthrough in Magnetic Technology that is educator approved!

This new Magnetic Listen & Learn series combines the proven Magnix® patented technology with sound to help young children discover and learn about the wonderful world in which they live! These colorful interactive and educational books encourage children to learn through fun facts, sounds and pictures that offer a new adventure on every page as well as a full play-scape on the last spread. The child can move the "magical sound" play piece on each page generating fun sounds and use the other 16 magnets to create their own exciting stories, games and adventures. Complete with 16 full color magnets, a "magical sound" magnet and a built-in handle for hours of carry-a-long fun! Patented Technology.

Wildlife Adventure

Colorful pictures and amazing facts give young readers a glimpse of the Wild Kingdom! Beautiful wildlife magnets stick right to the page to encourage interactive play while the 3-D Jeep magnet creates fun sounds. Jazzy the little orange jeep will be a child's vehicle for learning as they use it to follow the tire track paths through amazing animal habitats. When you reach the "Jeep Station", Jazzy makes fun driving sounds until he moves to the next page. The full colorful habitat play-scape at the end allows the child to use their vivid imagination to create their own adventures.

Undersea Search

Colorful pictures and amazing facts give young readers a glimpse of Undersea life! Beautiful sea creature magnets stick right to the page to encourage interactive play while the 3-D Submarine magnet creates fun sounds. Sunny the little yellow submarine will be a child's vehicle for learning as they use it to follow the bubble paths through amazing undersea habitats. When you reach the "Submarine Station", Sunny makes fun underwater sounds until he moves to the next page. The full colorful habitat play-scape at the end allows the child to use their vivid imagination to create their own adventures.
